CAL "IRON MAN" RIPKEN JR.

At the 2018 NAED National Meeting, we are proud to welcome, as our special guest, a man who has become an American icon by demanding excellence – and achieving excellence – through strength of mind and body, through “Iron Man” durability made possible by doing his job the right way, and by turning each challenge into a learning opportunity to be the best.

- ◆ Legendary American baseball shortstop and third baseman.
- ◆ Played 21 seasons for the Baltimore Orioles (1981-2001).
- ◆ Elected into the National Baseball Hall Of Fame in 2007 – his first year of eligibility – and currently has the fourth highest Hall Of Fame voting percentage of all time (98.53%).
- ◆ One of his position's most offensively productive players, Ripken compiled 3,184 hits, 431 home runs, and 1,695 runs-batted-in.
- ◆ Holds record for the most consecutive games played at 2,632, surpassing Lou Gehrig's streak of 2,130 that had stood for 56 years and that many deemed unbreakable.
- ◆ Won two Gold Glove awards for defense.
- ◆ 19-time All Star.
- ◆ Twice named American League Most Valuable Player.
- ◆ Member of the 3,000 Hit Club
